

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION

1. The Department of Commerce is pleased to announce that the United States and the Republic of Korea have agreed to a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) regarding trade and investment cooperation. This MOU will facilitate the exchange of information and the promotion of trade and investment between the two countries.

MOU Signing Ceremony

2. The MOU was signed in Washington, D.C. on [Date] and will take effect upon ratification by the United States and the Republic of Korea. The MOU covers a wide range of trade and investment issues, including the facilitation of trade and investment, the exchange of information, and the promotion of trade and investment between the two countries.

3. The MOU is a significant step in strengthening trade and investment ties between the United States and the Republic of Korea. It will help to create a more favorable business environment for U.S. and Korean companies and will contribute to economic growth and development in both countries.

4. The MOU is consistent with the Department of Commerce's commitment to promoting trade and investment cooperation between the United States and other countries. It is a testament to the strong relationship between the United States and the Republic of Korea and the shared commitment to trade and investment cooperation.

